

On behalf of the National Association of Certified Professional Midwives, I am delighted to hear that you are interested in forming a NACPM State Chapter!

A powerful, collective voice for Certified Professional Midwives will enhance our collective ability to support and strengthen our profession, and to improve maternal health policy nationwide. As our profession grows, a strong national association working with an effective network of NACPM Chapters will support the role of CPMs as primary maternity care providers for childbearing people and their families in the United States. NACPM looks forward to working with you to meet the needs and challenges of CPMs in your state, to help you share with your peers how you have achieved your victories, and to improve state and national policy for the sake of babies, families and communities.

To help you get started, we offer this information packet for state leaders interested in learning about and/or applying to form NACPM State Chapters. Specifically, this packet includes:

1. An Overview of the NACPM State Chapter Program including a brief description of the program's vision, structure and benefits/services to State Chapters;
2. Information and Tools for creating a State Chapter including the process for incorporation, for creating bylaws and policies, and other resources;
3. Intention to Form Chapter, which identifies primary liaison (electronic version available);
4. NACPM's State Chapter Agreement; and
5. An Application Checklist describing the submission process for becoming a State Chapter.

Overview of NACPM's State Chapter Program

I. Vision Statement

Vision

NACPM envisions a primary birth care system in our country where all birthing people access care through a midwife, where birth place is the choice of the family, and where all childbearing people and babies have the same chance to be healthy.

Purpose

NACPM's purpose is to be a powerful, collective voice for Certified Professional Midwives. We strengthen and support excellence in the profession and influence birth health policy to ensure that all childbearing people and babies have a healthy start.

Why form an NACPM State Chapter?

The promise of a National Association of Certified Professional Midwives State Chapter Program is the creation of a unified voice for the profession, the model of care, and the benefits that accrue to childbearing people, babies and families from CPM care. Achieving our bold, shared goals of improving the birth care system and patient outcomes will require significant development at both the state and national levels.

States have authority over CPM licensing, scope of practice and governance. Federal agencies develop laws and policies guiding health care delivery, access, reimbursement and innovation that impacts CPMs at the state and local level. CPMs need a coordinated structure to be most effective in enhancing our national influence and to support states in advancing midwifery care locally.

There are many examples of the need for national/state partnerships, including:

- Supporting licensure for CPMs in all 50 states
- Achieving recognition of CPMs as primary birth care providers in the US health care system
- Creating opportunities to increase and diversify the CPM workforce
- Eliminating obstacles to payment and improving reimbursement rates

While there are many shining examples among the states of well-organized and effective state associations, we still have much to do to create a unified voice for Certified Professional Midwifery. A structure for relationships among the states, and between the states and a national professional association, is a significant missing piece in the development of direct-entry midwifery in the United States. Forming NACPM State Chapters and building a structure for these relationships are critical next steps in advancing the CPM profession.

II. Structure

NACPM's State Chapter program is based on a model in which each State Chapter is incorporated as a separate legal entity with nonprofit tax-exempt status, and is affiliated with NACPM through an annual State Chapter agreement. This agreement is framed around a shared commitment to our common vision, and is drafted in the spirit of collaboration, mutual responsibility and collective impact. NACPM's goal is to work closely with established state associations, and there shall be only one NACPM State Chapter per state.

Specifically, key elements of the State Chapter agreement include:

- Clear rights and responsibilities for both NACPM and State Chapters
- A policy that State Chapter members must also be NACPM members
- A policy that State Chapters have the flexibility to set their own dues if desired
- National NACPM membership dues are $125 per year (or a reduced $75 rate for those with income constraints). Of these dues, NACPM will contribute $25 per CPM member of its membership rate back to State Chapters as an added benefit to support local efforts
- A policy clarifying communication and use of NACPM's name by State Chapters
- Annual reporting requirements for State Chapters
- A responsibility on the part of State Chapters to share information, lessons learned and other tools that might serve as a resource to NACPM and other Chapters
- A policy that every State Chapter identify a leader to serve as the liaison to the national office
- Clarification that either party can terminate the agreement & that disagreements will go to mediation prior to litigation

III. Benefits & Services to State Chapters

To support State Chapters, NACPM commits to the following, ongoing services and resources:

- Access to regular webinars, conference calls, resources and tools designed exclusively for Chapters leaders and members (e.g., forums on state policy changes, specific resources to support state leaders and their members, state leader conference calls)
- Discounts on continuing education opportunities and events offered by NACPM
- Legislative, regulatory and technical assistance
- State Chapter member information and dues collected through NACPM's membership system
- $25 for each paying State Chapter CPM member will be sent annually from NACPM to the State Chapter to support Chapter start-up or activities
- Access to affordable Board of Directors insurance through NACPM insurance policy
- Access to 501(c)6 IRS non-profit status as part of NACPM's IRS Group Ruling
- Chapter webpage on the NACPM website if requested
- Chapter logo
- State leader toolkits (e.g., resources for starting a Chapter, sample by-laws, templates)
- Overview of national and state-level information (e.g. landscape of state policies, CPM facts/numbers)
- CPM rationale/messaging (e.g., rationale for becoming a CPM, joining a professional Chapter, benefits of integrating CPMs into maternity care system)
- State licensure and legislative resources from NACPM and other states
- NACPM position papers and policy examples from other states

Information & Tools for Creating a State Chapter

NACPM is here to support you! The legal and IRS process for creating a State Chapter is relatively straightforward. Below is a step-by-step process to guide your efforts. Again, we are here to help you so please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions (chapters@nacpm.org).

Legal Entity

NACPM recognizes that State Chapters may be at different stages of organization, from full incorporation and tax-exempt IRS status to a more informal, loosely organized group. To be part of this program, State Chapters must be incorporated as separate legal entities, have an Employer ID Number (or EIN), and hold nonprofit tax-exempt status. This provides legal protection to state leaders and forms the basis of our joint Chapter agreement.

How to do this:

1. Incorporate as a nonprofit legal entity. The simplest way to do this is to visit your Secretary of State's website and file as a nonprofit corporation. As part of this process, your state will ask for Articles of Incorporation, which NACPM can provide as a template if that's helpful. We recommend naming your organization either the "[Fill in State Name] State Chapter of NACPM" or "NACPM [Fill in State Name] State Chapter."
2. Get an Employer Identification Number (EIN) from the IRS. The EIN is a unique number that identifies your organization to the IRS and is required even if your Chapter will not have employees. You must have incorporated at the state level first to get an EIN (step #1 above). Apply for your EIN online at: <https://sa.www4.irs.gov/modiein/individual/index.jsp>
 - On the first screen, select "view additional types..." (last option)
 - On the next screen, select "other non-profit/tax-exempt orgs" (last option)
3. Attain federal tax-exempt status. State Chapters can do this in one of two ways. It can agree to terms and procedures outlined by the IRS that will allow NACPM to include them in its "group ruling" exemption for a fee of $200 or it can apply for its own individual tax-exempt status with the IRS (using Form 1024).

Being part of the group ruling simply means that you do not need to go through the process of applying for a tax exemption status separately. NACPM is classified by the IRS as a 501(c)6 membership association. This means that NACPM is a not-for-profit organization. Dues, donations, and other monies received by NACPM may not be classified by individuals or organizations as charitable or non-taxable contributions. Any State Chapter opting to be part of the group ruling will also be considered a 501(c)6 organization.

If you're interested in being part of NACPM's group ruling exemption, please let us know. We will walk you through the process. In brief, there are some things the IRS and NACPM require your State Chapter to have or do under a group ruling:

- A fiscal year that mirrors NACPM's for your bookkeeping (January 1 - December 31)
- A federal EIN
- A bank account and book-keeping system
- A completed NACPM application and signed State Chapter agreement
- A set of policies and by-laws (more details on this below)
- Annual federal tax filing submission using financial disclosure forms (Form 990 or 990N "postcard" filing) (see more information on this below)

Of note, incorporation (step #1 above) is not the same as "tax-exempt status" (step #3), a term the IRS uses to exempt certain organizations from federal income tax. State Chapters will need to attain federal tax-exemption separately, either through NACPM's group ruling or individually. Federal exemption also does not relieve your organization of the obligations to pay state and local taxes.

Tax Filings

Federal, state and local governments require tax filings for every State Chapter. Below is an overview of what State Chapters are responsible for and where NACPM can be of assistance:

1. Federal tax filings. The federal government requires both NACPM and all State Chapters to file taxes annually using an IRS Form 990 or—if annual income is under $50,000—using Form 990N (known as the "postcard"). Failure to submit these forms for 3 consecutive years will result in the State Chapter automatically losing tax-exempt status. When this happens, the national office is very limited in what it can do to help regain tax-exempt status.
 - If your State Chapter elects to be part of NACPM's group ruling, NACPM can help file your 990N form with you. (If you want NACPM to do this filing for you, we will need a report from your Chapter listing your income, sources of income, expenditures and categories of expenditures by March 15th of each year.)
 - If your State Chapter pursues its own tax-exempt status (for example, is a separate 501(c)6 organization), then the State Chapter is wholly responsible for filing its federal taxes.
2. State & local tax filings. All State Chapters are responsible for their own state and local taxes.

Governance / Management

Each State Chapter should have the following governing documents and systems in place:

1. State Chapter bylaws. Your State Chapter bylaws outline the officer positions and tasks assigned to each position. Most State Chapters have the positions of President, Vice President, Secretary, or Treasurer. When there is a change in officers, please notify the national office. If you are creating a new Chapter, NACPM can provide you a sample by-law template.
2. State Chapter bank account. Please establish a bank account at a bank of your choosing.

3. State Chapter policies. The IRS annual non-profit tax return (Form 990) requires that non-profit organizations have specific policies in place. These policies include:

- Conflict of Interest Policy
- Record Retention Policy
- Whistleblower Policy
- Leadership Guidelines for Ethical Conduct Policy

Each Chapter leader should read the policies, sign NACPM's Policy Acknowledgement Form, and file the forms with the State Chapter Secretary annually. NACPM will provide policy templates for your convenience.

4. State Chapter agreement signed annually and sent to the national office.

5. Bookkeeping system. We highly recommend setting up a simple bookkeeping system to manage your revenue and expenses. This will also be important for federal tax filings (Form 990).

Quickbooks Online is one helpful tool; small business plan/pricing options are available here:

<http://www.quickbooks.intuit.com/pricing/>

6. Membership database system. For state and local tax filing purposes each Chapter must maintain records of membership status and payment of dues. To assist Chapters with this responsibility, NACPM will send Chapter membership records to Chapters on a biannual basis, or as requested by the Chapter liaison.

Insurance

Each State Chapter is required to hold Directors & Officers insurance coverage. D&O insurance provides general liability coverage to your directors and senior leaders. It reimburses (in part or in full) the costs resulting from lawsuits and judgments arising out of poor management decisions, employee dismissals, stakeholder grievances, and other such acts committed in good faith. Criminal offenses are not covered under this insurance. If interested, a Chapter can elect to be included on NACPM's Directors and Officers insurance policy for a fee of $100.

Membership & Dues

State Chapters have full flexibility to set state-level dues. State-level dues will be collected by NACPM and are the sole propriety of the State Chapter. NACPM will send state-level dues to the State Chapter on a biannual basis, along with updated Chapter membership records. Chapters must deposit dues checks within six months or forego the funds.

NACPM does require that all State Chapter members be NACPM members. NACPM membership is currently $125 per year (or a reduced rate of $75 for those with income constraints). The national office retains the authority to set and collect NACPM dues.

NACPM will collect dues for national members, and state-level dues, if any. Under this arrangement, members who join NACPM will have the option of joining their State Chapter simultaneously. NACPM will contribute $25 to the State Chapter for every paying CPM member per year who also elects to join the State Chapter. To coordinate this, State Chapters agree to direct prospective State Chapter members to the NACPM website where they will join/renew at both the national and state levels.
